

Open Colored Breed Show

Friday, August 4, 2017 - 10:30 AM

REGISTRATION

Pre-registration required.

Health. Any exhibitor showing at the Warren County Farmers Fair must be in compliance with New Jersey Division of Animal Health recommendations for New Jersey fairs, shows and sales. All animals must be free from infectious or contagious disease.

- a. A valid (official) Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) signed by an accredited New Jersey Veterinarian must accompany all native New Jersey Animals. The CVI must indicate that all animals of the species to be exhibited on the exhibitor's premises have been observed by a veterinarian and found to be free of any signs of infectious or contagious diseases. The official New Jersey Certificate of Veterinarian Inspection is valid for thirty (30) days in New Jersey. Cattle originating from other states must be accompanied by an official interstate Certificate of Veterinary Inspection in compliance with New Jersey's import regulations. All domestic animals requiring CVI for exhibition must be individually identified by one of the acceptable species methods and it must be listed on the health certificate. If any additional identification is present, it should also be listed. CVI must be checked by Fair director and/or veterinarian.
- b. All animals which are eligible for an approved USDA rabies vaccination should be current on rabies vaccination, and proof of vaccination by a veterinarian should be provided.
- c. New Jersey exhibitors do not need brucellosis or tuberculosis certificates.
- d. All female animals equal to or greater than four months of age should be calf hood vaccinated, but this is not required for Northeast animals. All animals must be current on Bovine Respiratory Disease complex (shipping fever) vaccination, which includes at least IBRK, PI3, BVD, and BRSV with dates of inoculation and product name recorded on the health certificate. It is strongly recommended that all animals exhibited be vaccinated against rabies. These will be checked with the registration papers. Check with your veterinarian for any updated tests that are required by the New Jersey Department of Animal Health.
- e. Animals not meeting health regulations will be asked to leave the grounds.

Rules

1. Production forms of each milking animal must be presented before 8:00 AM on the day of the show. All exhibitors will pay an entry fee of $5.00 for each animal. Post entries will not be accepted after 8:00 AM on August 5, 2016. The entry fee allows the animal to be entered in as many classes as the exhibitor sees fit. Checks should be made payable to the Warren County Farmers Fair Association and are due JUNE 30, 2017. ALL SPECIAL CLASS ENTRIES WILL BE MADE BY JUNE 30, 2017. NO POST ENTRIES OR SUBSTITUTIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR CLASSES 25, 26, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 AND ALL SHOWMANSHIP CLASSES.
2. Exhibitors will receive one exhibitor pass for the back gate to gain access to loading and unloading of animals.
3. No Animals are to be tied in the Red and White Show Building.
4. All animals must be on the grounds by 8:00 AM the morning of the show. All exhibitors are asked to remain on the grounds until 7:00 PM the evening of the show. Animals may remain through Saturday, August 5, 2017, however, UPON REMOVAL OF YOUR ANIMALS – AREA MUST BE CLEANED UP BY PUSHING DEBRIS INTO THE CENTER AISLE.
5. Registration papers will be checked by a Fair director and/or veterinarian. If your registration papers have not been received by this date, it is advisable to call your breed association for verification of registry and/or transfer. Proof of registered animals in owner's name is required. Registration papers with agreeing markings or tattoos must be available. Animals must be registered and/or transferred and entered in the name of the owner. Each animal entered can only be entered in one of the age classes. For example, a cow entered in the 5-year-old class may not be entered in the 125,000 classes or dry cow class. All milking fall yearlings will compete in the Junior Two-Year-Old Class. All cows entered in milking or dry cow classes must have been fresh at least once, except for two year olds, which will be shown in their respective two-year-old class.
6. The Warren County Farmers Fair Association will provide bedding for exhibitors. It is up to the exhibitors to bring feed, hay, utensils and equipment. Also it is the responsibility of the exhibitor to feed and water their animals.
7. All walkways must be kept clear of equipment, supplies, debris, etc., during your entire stay at the Warren County Farmers Fair. At no time may any walkways be roped off in the exhibitor barns.

8. Medical waste must not be put in with the manure or trashcans on the grounds. Please dispose of needles properly by taking them home.
9. Exhibitors will be expected to display or parade their animals as directed and to accept conditions as provided without controversy. This display is held for educational purposes, and animals must be kept in show shape.
10. Exhibitors shall be neatly dressed when exhibiting and wear clean clothes.
11. The Fair directors and/or veterinarian reserves the right to bar from any show unruly animals or animals of decidedly inferior conformation and type or animals not meeting the health standards.
12. Bathroom and shower facilities located in the livestock area are available to all exhibitors.
13. The Open Colored Breed Show is open to any breeder from any county or state.
14. Premiums will be paid by check and mailed after Fair.
15. Premiums will be paid in all type classes, special classes and showmanship classes.
